

+ absorptivity

Absorptance divided by the optical path length. For very low attenuation it approximates the absorption coefficient [within the approximation $(1 - e^{-A}) \sim A$]. The use of this term is not recommended.

1996, 68, 2227