

atomic units

System of units based on four base quantities: length, mass, charge and action (angular momentum) and the corresponding base units the Bohr radius, a_0 , rest mass of the electron, m_e , elementary charge, e , and the Planck constant divided by 2π , \hbar .

G.B. 76, 120

N.B. This is superseded by a later definition.