

compensation (in catalysis)

For the process:

$$k = A\exp(-E/RT)$$

where k is a rate constant, A the frequency factor, and E the activation energy, A and E sometimes exhibit compensation, i.e. they change in the same direction with change in catalyst for a given reaction or with change in reaction for a given catalyst.

1976, 46, 82