

+ dark photochemistry (photochemistry without light)

Chemical reactions involving electronically excited molecular entities which are generated thermally rather than by absorption of electromagnetic radiation. The use of this term is discouraged.

1996, 68, 2235