

effective theoretical plate number (of a chromatographic column)

A number indicative of column performance when resolution is taken into account:

$$N = 16R_s^2 / (1 - \alpha)^2$$

where R_s is the peak resolution, and α is the separation factor.

See also plate number (in chromatography).

O.B. 108