

fixed neutral loss (gain) spectrum (in mass spectrometry)

A spectrum obtained when data are acquired that determine all the parent ion mass-to-charge ratios that react by the loss (gain) of a selected neutral mass.

1991, 63, 1551