

G value (in nuclear chemistry)

The number of specified chemical events in an irradiated substance produced per 100 eV of energy absorbed from ionizing radiation.

1982, 54, 1544