

half life (of a radionuclide)

For a single radioactive decay process, the time required for the activity to decrease to half its value by that process.

1994, 66, 2520