

integral capacitance (of an electrode)

Integral capacitance (per unit area of electrode) is given by

$$K = Q/(E - E_{Q=0})$$

where Q is the electric charge (per unit area of electrode), E is the potential of the electrode with respect to a reference electrode, and $E_{Q=0}$ is the potential at the point of zero charge.

1974, 37, 509