

j*-value (in atmospheric chemistry)

An effective first order rate constant for a photochemical reaction (photodecomposition, etc.) of light-absorbing impurities in the atmosphere.

1990, 62, 2198