

Langmuir–Hinshelwood mechanism

A mechanism for surface catalysis in which the reaction occurs between species that are adsorbed on the surface is often known as a Langmuir–Hinshelwood mechanism.

1996, 68, 171