

natural broadening (of a spectral line)

Broadening which has its origin in the finite optical lifetime of one or both levels involved in the transition.

O.B. 121; 1985, 57, 1463