

net (in surface chemistry)

A two-dimensional lattice (in a particular range of surface coverage and temperature) into which the adsorbate is ordered, especially in some cases of localized adsorption.

1976, 46, 76