

potentiation

Dependent action in which a substance or physical agent at a concentration or dose that does not itself have an adverse effect enhances the harm done by another substance or physical agent.

See also antagonism, synergism.

1993, 65, 2085