

radioactive age

The time, estimated from measurement of the isotopic composition, during which the content of a radioactive species within an object has remained unchanged except for nuclear decay.

1982, 54, 1549