

scanning method (in mass spectrometry)

This term refers to the sequence of control over operating parameters of a mass spectrometer that results in a spectrum of masses, velocities, momenta or energies.

1991, 63, 1546; 1990, 62, 2212