

secondary fluorescence (in X-ray emission spectroscopy)

Ionization of the analyte element in a sample by characteristic radiation from other elements in the sample resulting in an enhancement of the signal measured.

1980, 52, 2547