

sticking coefficient (in surface chemistry)

The ratio of the rate of adsorption to the rate at which the adsorptive strikes the total surface, i.e. covered and uncovered. It is usually a function of surface coverage, of temperature and of the details of the surface structure of the adsorbent.

1976, 46, 78