

support-coated open-tubular (SCOT) column (in chromatography)

A version of a porous-layer open-tabular (PLOT) column in which the porous layer consists of support particles and was deposited from a suspension.

1993, 65, 831