

term (in X-ray spectroscopy)

A set of levels which have the same electron configuration and the same value of the quantum numbers for total spin S and total orbital angular momentum L .

1991, 63, 737