

through-space electron transfer

Electron transfer for which the relevant electronic interaction between the donor and acceptor sites is mediated either by direct orbital overlap or by superexchange interaction via intervening molecular entities not covalently bound to the donor or acceptor sites.

See also through-bond electron transfer.
1996, 68, 2280