

universal detector (in chromatography)

A detector which responds to every component in the column effluent except the mobile phase.

1993, 65, 849